COMPUTER-AIDED TRANSLATION AN INDUSTRY SURVEY

The most comprehensive survey of the computer-aided translation industry ever undertaken is now available to the general public. Conducted through Harvard Business School, this report is essential to anyone in the translation field.

The report assesses the impact of emerging technologies on the translation industry, and the present and potential users of such systems. Also included is key information on:

- Corporations Offering CAT Systems
- Japanese CAT Ventures
- Government and University Research Projects
- Translation-Support Products

Dig Where Language Is Greenest !

For a generation, the best minds have been squeezing the juice out of syntax and other structure. Yet communication also involves meaning and procedure, aspects that remain unexploited.

Now, a 'Periodic table of processes'™ has been devised! It is The Wordtree ®. - Henry G. Burger's nomenclator describes, like stroboscope phases, every transitive verb in the language as the sum of its previous action and the addition: To RELEGATE and DELAY = DEFER. To DEFER and INTERRUPT = ADJOURN, etc. All parts are cross-referenced.

You can use Dr. Burger's add-on dictionary to branch backward to pinpoint causes, and forward to pinpoint effects. You hook into the largest existing expert system: culture itself. The system changes vocabulary from passive description to active maneuvering.

Reviewers say: "Entirely new, impressively comprehensive, The Wordtree ® deserves close study, long trial, and perhaps incorporation into the mainstream." - Lexicographica. // "An exceptionally important and original publication not merely for English but linguistics and science as well." - Neoterm.

Over 1/4 million listings fill this computer-organized reference book. ISBN 0-936312-00-9. US $149. If foreign, add $6. THE INTERNATIONAL JOURNAL OF SUPERCOMPUTER APPLICATIONS

An interdisciplinary forum for the exchange of experiences in supercomputing

"The use of supercomputers and thus the scope of Supercomputer Applications, is limited only by the imagination."

Joanne L. Martin,
Editor

Industrial procedures, consumer products, medicine, defense—these are only a few of the areas that will be greatly influenced by the continued development and application of supercomputers. Supercomputer Applications is the publication that will keep you at the forefront of developments as they occur.

Supercomputer Applications focuses on the exchange of software techniques that apply to classes of problems across disciplines, and presents methods for analyzing, measuring and applying algorithms and solution schemes related to particular application areas.

In addition to papers on a variety of computationally intensive problems, each issue contains:

- technical reviews of new products
- news on activities at international supercomputer centers
- book reviews
- critical reviews and editorials

Sample topic areas include:

artificial intelligence/knowledge processing, computational aerodynamics, graphics/imaging, performance studies, modeling of complex molecular systems, structural analysis and computer aided design, theoretical and experimental particle physics

Keep abreast of the latest supercomputer applications and techniques. Subscribe now to the International Journal of Supercomputer Applications. Published quarterly by the MIT Press. Volume 1, number 1, Spring 1987.

NEURAL COMPUTATION

First Issue: Spring 1989

Editor-in-Chief

Terrence Sejnowski
The Salk Institute and
The University of California at San Diego

Neural Computation will provide a unique interdisciplinary forum for the dissemination of important research results and for reviews of research areas in neural computation.

Neural computation is a rapidly growing field that is attracting researchers in neuroscience, psychology, physics, mathematics, electrical engineering, computer science, and artificial intelligence. Researchers within these disciplines address, from special perspectives, the twin scientific and engineering challenges of understanding the brain and building computers. The journal serves to bring together work from various application areas, highlighting common problems and techniques in modeling the brain and in the design and construction of neurally-inspired information processing systems.

By publishing timely short communications and research reviews, Neural Computation will allow researchers easy access to information on important advances and will provide a valuable overview of the broad range of work contributing to neural computation. The journal will not accept long research articles.

The fields covered include neuroscience, computer science, artificial intelligence, mathematics, physics, psychology, linguistics, adaptive systems, vision, speech, robotics, optical computing, and VLSI.

Neural Computation is published quarterly by The MIT Press.

Announcing
THE ACL-MIT PRESS SERIES IN NATURAL LANGUAGE PROCESSING

Aravind Joshi, Editor

The ACL-MIT Series will offer books of high quality in the field of natural language processing, including human and machine speech production and understanding. It will cover a wide range of topics, both theoretical and applied, which should interest researchers not only in computational linguistics, but also in computer science and in formal linguistics.

The Series will include specially commissioned volumes, research monographs, textbooks, and on occasion, collections of high quality papers with clear unifying themes compiled under the editorship of distinguished researchers.

The MIT Press publishes the ACL journal, Computational Linguistics. The Press also has a strong list in formal linguistics, and publishes the journal, Linguistic Inquiry.

Executive Board:

Robert Berwick (MIT)
Robin Cooper (Edinburgh)
Gerald Gazdar (Sussex)
Makoyto Nagao (Kyoto)
Ray Perrault (SRI)
Janet Pierrehumbert (Bell Labs)
Christian Rohrer (Stuttgart)
Candace Sidner (B,B & N)
Karen Sparck-Jones (Cambridge)
Bonnie Lynn Webber (Pennsylvania)

SPEAKING
From Intention to Articulation
Willem J.M. Levelt

In this remarkably balanced and comprehensive treatment, Willem "Pim" Levelt, Director of the Max-Planck-Institute for Psycholinguistics, covers the entire process of speech production, from message formulation to articulation to self-evaluation of speech. Speaking: From Intention to Articulation inaugurates the ACL-MIT Series in Natural-Language Processing. A Bradford Book.

AN ESSAY ON STRESS
Morris Halle and Jean-Roger Vergnaud

Over the course of a decade, the authors have developed a theory that provides a local account of all "action at a distance." They describe, illustrate, and defend a universal framework for the characterization of the patterns of word and phrase stress found the world over.

A COURSE IN GB SYNTAX
Lectures on Binding and Empty Categories
Howard Lasnik and Juan Uriagereka

"Lasnik's lectures ... are a model of clarity and insight .... they lead the reader, carefully and lucidly, to the borders of current research. The book should prove extremely useful for intermediate or advanced courses, and ... anyone concerned with the nature of language or engaged in research in linguistics."

ACL 1989 DUES STATEMENT

Note LATE PAYMENT FEE for Renewals after 15 March; Institutions Subscribe through MIT Press

Membership in the Association for Computational Linguistics is for the calendar year; it includes the ACL journal Computational Linguistics, reduced registration at most ACL-sponsored conferences, and discounts on ACL-sponsored publications. Institutional memberships were discontinued in 1988 when MIT Press began publishing the journal; instead, institutions should subscribe to the journal through MIT Press Journals, 55 Hayward Street, Cambridge, MA 02142 USA; 617:253-2889. Back issues and proceedings are available only from the ACL Office, except that institutions should backorder journals from 1988 on through MIT Press. An order form is on the other side of this statement. The change in publishing required establishing a late payment for renewals made after 15 March, because of the extra mailing and handling costs. The late payment fee does not apply to new members. Dues and back order payments can be made in Europe and Japan as well as the U.S.; read the directions under the heading PAYMENT below carefully. Identify your institutional affiliation if it is not part of your address. Also please provide your telephone number and computer network address.

The ACL set up a fund in 1982 to make ACL memberships and publications available to colleagues who have difficulty in using their national currencies for international transactions or for whom membership would otherwise be impossible. Contributions may be tax-deductible in the United States and in some other countries; check local regulations.

PAYMENT: Prepayment is necessary; invoices are available on request. Checks should be made out to the Association for Computational Linguistics (or to ACL). Payments can be made to one of the addresses below, as follows:

1. In the USA to Walker; mail this dues statement with a check or money order in U.S. dollars, drawn on a U.S. bank, payable to ACL.
2. In Switzerland to Rosner; mail this dues statement with a check or money order in U.S. dollars, Swiss francs, or the equivalent in local currency on the day of payment, payable to ACL. Payment can also be made by bank transfer to account number 141.880.LAV at the Union Bank of Switzerland, 8 rue de Rhone, CH-1211 Geneva 11, SWITZERLAND. Send Rosner a copy of the bank transfer as well as the dues statement. Standing orders can be established only with bank transfers.
3. In Japan to Nagao; transfer an equivalent amount in yen on the day of payment to "Dai-ichi Kangyo Bank, Hyakumanben Branch; Ordinary Deposit, 476-1319944; Name: Keisangengogakkai Kaihi Nagao Makoto." Mail this dues statement to Walker together with a copy of the bank transfer. Also send Nagao a copy of the bank transfer. Note: THE DUES STATEMENT MUST BE SENT TO WALKER TO BE PROPERLY RECORDED IN THE ACL OFFICE.

Guidelines for Submissions

Manuscripts to Computational Linguistics should be submitted on letter-size paper (8.5 by 11 inches, or A4), double-spaced throughout, including footnotes and references. The paper should begin with an informative abstract of approximately 150-250 words. Manuscripts must be written in English.

Submissions may be made in any of the following categories:

PAPER: This category includes contributions that report significant new research results in computational linguistics or that provide critical reviews of the literature on a particular topic. The length of a paper depends on its content, but we suggest that manuscripts be limited to forty double-spaced pages. That is the equivalent of twelve journal pages. Each paper is fully refereed, being read by at least two members of the editorial board and usually by an additional expert in the particular subject area.

The submission of an article to CL for refereeing means that the author certifies the manuscript is not copyrighted; nor has it been published or submitted for publication to another refereed journal. If any version of the paper has appeared, or will appear, in a non-refereed publication, the details of such publication must be made known to the Editor at the time of submission. The final version of a paper tentatively accepted for publication must be accompanied by a Copyright Transfer Agreement signed by all of the authors or, in the case of a "work for hire," by the employer. This written transfer is necessary under the 1978 U.S. Copyright law.

TECHNICAL CORRESPONDENCE: This category includes short articles reporting preliminary results of some project in progress, or the results of other studies of interest to the readership. Technical correspondences should not generally exceed eight double-spaced pages. Each technical correspondence is reviewed by at least two members of the editorial board before acceptance.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR: This includes statements of opinion on issues relevant to the readership. The Editor and the editorial board will evaluate the appropriateness of these contributions for inclusion.

Five copies of papers, technical correspondences, and letters should be sent to the Editor:

James F. Allen, CL Editor
Department of Computer Science
The University of Rochester
Rochester, NY 14627, USA
INTERNET:acl@cs.rochester.edu

Anyone interested in reviewing a book, or in suggesting a book for review, should contact the Book Review Editor; publishers may also submit copies of books for review directly to the Book Review Editor:

Graeme Hirst, CL Book Review Editor
Department of Computer Science
University of Toronto
Toronto, CANADA M5S 1A4
INTERNET:gh@ai.toronto.edu

The Finite String Editor should receive (a) copies of technical reports and reprints of papers published elsewhere—or at least citation information and abstracts of such items and of books and monographs; (b) summaries of research in progress—of particular interest would be perspectives on the activities at a particular institution; (c) announcements of meetings of potential interest to the membership; and (d) personal notes (e.g., honors, moving, changes in status). Two copies of submissions should be sent to the Finite String Editor:

Ralph Weischedel, Finite String Editor
BBN Systems & Technologies Corporation
10 Moulton Street
Cambridge, MA 02238, USA
INTERNET:weischedel@bbn.com

Fuller instructions about the format of submissions can be found in the first issue of each volume.

NOTE All submissions other than papers should reach the pertinent editor no later than the 15th of the first month of each quarter.
