

Takeaways

- It helps posteditors improve quality by facilitating finding errors
- It was appreciated by posteditors in real projects
- It is an efficient QA check that finds many errors quickly
- A non-speaker (such as a project manager) can get quality insights
- It can be used as a tool to propose glossary terms
- MT consistency could be part of metrics
- Everything done here for Post-editing can be done for Human Translations

Thank you!

