The code and copyright notice appearing at the bottom of the first page of an article in this journal indicate the copyright owner's consent that a single copy of the article may be made for personal use. Any copier must pay for copying beyond that permitted by Sections 107 and 108 of the U.S. Copyright Law. The per-copy fee for each article appears after the dollar sign and is to be paid through the Copyright Clearance Center, Inc. This consent does not apply to other kinds of copying, such as copying for general distribution, for advertising and promotional purposes, for creating new collective works, or for resale. Such permission requests and other permission inquiries should be addressed to the Managing Editor at the address given above.

Subscriptions to CL are available only through membership in the ACL. Each subscription includes both hard-copy and microfiche versions of the journal.

Back issues of the AJCL may be ordered at annual rates of $15 for orders from personal members, $30 from institutional members. The first five volumes (1974-1978) are available only on microfiche; add $3 for first class mailing in North America; $6 for air printed mailing overseas. Volumes 6 - 9 (1980-1983) are available in both hard-copy and microfiche form; add $6 for first class, $12 for air printed mail. The AJCL was not published during 1979.

Annual dues are $15 for personal and $30 for institutional memberships. A joint membership for couples that provides one subscription is available for $20. The dues payment includes bulk or surface mailing fees. First class mailing is available in North America for an additional $6; air printed mailing is available overseas for an additional $12.

Address changes should be sent to the ACL Secretary-Treasurer.

Payments for dues or back issues should be made payable to the Association for Computational Linguistics (or ACL). Payments sent to the ACL Secretary-Treasurer should be payable in US dollars. Payments from people in Europe or with Swiss accounts should be sent to the European Chapter Treasurer; they can be paid in Swiss francs, by personal checks in the currency of that country, or by a banker's draft that credits account 141.880.LAV at the Union Bank of Switzerland, 8 rue de Rhone, CH-1211 Geneva 11, SWITZERLAND. European residents can get information on currency conversion values from the European Chapter Secretary.
